

LECTURER/SENIOR LECTURER: ACTUARIAL SCIENCE (Full Time, Permanent) SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT STUDIES FACULTY OF COMMERCE

The University of Cape Town (UCT) is an inclusive and engaged research-intensive African university that inspires creativity through outstanding achievements in learning, discovery and citizenship; enhancing the lives of its students and staff, advancing a more equitable and sustainable social order, and influencing the global higher education landscape.

The School of Management Studies is a vibrant and interdisciplinary department in the Faculty of Commerce. The School strives to emulate the university's vision of creating an inclusive and engaged research-intensive Africa-centric environment.

The Actuarial Science Section in the School of Management is recognised as being at the forefront of world-class actuarial education. The Section comprises a dynamic and energetic team committed to transformation, teaching and research excellence, and the expert education of the next generation of actuaries.

We invite applications at Lecturer/Senior Lecturer level.

We are looking for an academic who:

- Wants to teach and contribute to the transformation of the actuarial profession;
- Has a strong interest in the development and education of actuarial students across all levels of study;
- Enjoys the intellectual stimulation and flexibility offered by an academic career; and
- is, or wants to become, an authority in their research area of interest.

The appointee must be able to lecture on parts A2, A3 and F1 of the ASSA syllabus and should also have an interest in undertaking research. They will be expected to supervise Honours and Master's research projects, as appropriate, in their area(s) of expertise.

Our staff are expected to maintain a connection to actuarial work and to participate in the activities of the professional body. This connection to the profession is essential for maintaining the relevance of the programme, as well as advancing the discipline of Actuarial Science.
